DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to amendment filed 3/3/08.

Response to Amendment

2. Claim 40 has been amended; Claims 40-50 are pending.

Response to Arguments

3. The pending claims 40-50 have been allowed subsequent to the Examiner's Amendment (see below.)

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

4. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Chris L. Holm (Reg. No. 39,227) on 6/13/08.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Claims:

Claim 40. A financial method performed at least partially on a programmed computer for issuing an exchangeable security that is traded in a secondary market on a securities exchange and that is related to an underlying security, the method comprising:

determining a price of the underlying security at a first time;

calculating using said programmed computer a discounted price of the underlying security as a discount from the price of the underlying security at the first time; and issuing the exchangeable security at the first time and at the discounted price for trading in the secondary market on the securities exchange, the exchangeable security including an exchange right on or after a second time, where under the exchange right, a holder of the exchangeable security may exchange a share of the exchangeable security for a share of the underlying security, the second time after the first time.

Claims 42- 46:

Please reset status of claims 42-46 as (Original) from (withdrawn).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 40-50 are allowed.

5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance which apply to all allowed claims.

Garrity ( "What's in a name? Confusion.", The Investment Dealers' Digest : IDD, New York: Oct 5, 1998, pg. 1 ) discloses a capped convertible preferred stock that is issued at the same price as the common and pay a cumulative preferred dividend. Garrity teaches that the capped convertible preferred stock is issued at the same price as the underlying common. Thus, Garrity entirely fails to disclose claim 40. Because Garrity specifically describes the price of the capped convertible preferred stock the same as the price of the common, it would not have been obvious to modify Garrity and issue the capped convertible at a discount. Similarly, there is no teaching, suggestion or motivation for such a modification in Garrity or the relevant prior art.

Therefore, Garrity considered as a closest prior art of record fails to teach, suggest or render obvious the feature of "issuing the exchangeable security at the first time and at the discounted price for trading in the secondary market on the securities exchange, the exchangeable security including an exchange right on or after a second time, where under the exchange right, a holder of the exchangeable security may exchange a share of the exchangeable security for a share of the underlying security, the second time after the first time."

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
